Statement:	I witnessed the brindle pitt running loose in my yard. I went to try and take it home but it saw the white pitt and took off. After trying to see if the owners were home, I tried to run the white pitt down the street but it followed me home. I opened the door and tried to shove it away with my legs but it broke in and attacked my dog (6lb poodle) Finley. It grabbed and shook her. It broke her neck and killed her in my living room. I ran the dog out of the house and took my dog to the vet. I got home and the white pitt was being aggressive to other people near my home.
