WHEREAS, the Caddo Parish Commission takes immense pride in recognizing extraordinary Americans whose lives embody the highest ideals of courage, patriotism, perseverance, and selfless service, and whose sacrifices have helped secure the freedoms enjoyed by generations of Americans; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sam Archie Mattox, a distinguished United States Army veteran and proud son of Louisiana, has reached the extraordinary milestone of 107 years of life, standing among the nation's oldest surviving World War II veterans and representing a living connection to one of the most consequential chapters in American history; and

WHEREAS, born in 1919, Mr. Mattox answered his nation's call to duty during World War II, entering the United States Army on December 12, 1942, and serving approximately 26 months overseas in the Pacific Theater, including Australia, New Guinea, the Philippines, and Japan; and

WHEREAS, Corporal Mattox performed demanding and dangerous duties in support of Allied military operations, earning recognition that included two Bronze Stars before his honorable discharge in December 1945, and returned home to build a productive career in construction and masonry, remaining active in his profession well into his nineties; and

WHEREAS, throughout his remarkable life, Mr. Mattox has remained steadfast in his Christian faith, devotion to family, and commitment to hard work, offering younger generations an enduring example of humility, gratitude, resilience, and kindness; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Mattox has received widespread recognition for his distinguished military service and exceptional longevity, including honors as Louisiana's oldest living World War II veteran, Grand Marshal of the Northwest Louisiana Veterans Parade, and recognition in the United States Congressional Record; and

WHEREAS, as the ranks of World War II veterans diminish with each passing year, Mr. Mattox reminds us that America's freedoms were preserved through the extraordinary courage of ordinary citizens who answered their nation's call, and that his 107 years represent not merely exceptional longevity, but a lifetime of service, sacrifice, wisdom, and perseverance worthy of celebration;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Caddo Parish Commission, in legal and regular session convened, does hereby extend its highest commendation, heartfelt gratitude, and warmest congratulations to CORPORAL SAM ARCHIE MATTOX, UNITED STATES ARMY, WORLD WAR II VETERAN, in celebration of his extraordinary 107 years of life and distinguished service to the United States of America.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Commission proudly recognizes Mr. Mattox as Louisiana's oldest living World War II veteran and one of the nation's remarkable surviving members of the Greatest Generation, honoring his courage, devotion to duty, and enduring contributions to his family, community, and country.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the Caddo Parish Commission joins the Northwest Louisiana Veterans Celebration Committee, veterans organizations, and grateful citizens throughout our region in celebrating Mr. Mattox's extraordinary legacy, and directs that this Resolution be presented as a lasting expression of admiration, appreciation, and respect, with sincere wishes for continued blessings and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the seal of the Parish of Caddo to be affixed in the year Two Thousand Twenty-Six.
